ABOUT

WHITESWAN

WhiteSwan is a life and legacy planning experience that helps individuals and families reflect on their lives, prepare for what comes after, and preserve what matters most in one secure digital home.

Five Dimensions of Life

Legal

Organize wills, directives, powers of attorney, family records, and key legal information with the right professional support when needed

Medical

Clarify preferences for care, decision-making, comfort, and medical Power of Attorney (PoA)

Financial

Create a clear overview of policies, accounts, obligations, assets, and the information your family may one day need

Personal

Capture the values you hold. The memories that shaped you. The wisdom only you can give. Preserved in your own words

Family

Prepare thoughtful guidance around family roles, communication, funeral preferences, and what should happen when the time comes

Brand Philosophy

Brand Belief

The most loving decisions are often the ones made before they are needed.

Brand Purpose

To help families face life's most sensitive transitions prepared, together, and at peace.

Brand Mission

To guide families through the important wishes, documents, decisions, and conversations that should be prepared before a crisis happens.

Brand Vision

To become Asia's most trusted life-planning and legacy platform, helping families prepare for aging, illness, death, and legacy with clarity, dignity, and love.

Brand Promise

WhiteSwan gives families clarity before important transitions.
